SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT:

1. The work schedule of this job is "Intermittent" (on call) and there is no pre-scheduled work schedule. The number of actual hours to work per month is unpredictable and there may be times that employee(s) are not called to teach for a while. On the other hand, an employee may be asked to teach with a short notice, or by the last minute phone call. When he/she is not available, then the next person on the substitute instructors' list will be contacted and asked for availability.
2. The range of actual work days/hours may be anywhere from 08:00 a.m. to 07:00 p.m., Monday to Friday.
3. Since the job is permanent, employee(s) in this job will be considered for reassignment, promotion, or change to lower grade job opportunities in the same manner as the permanent full/part time employees under their appointment authorities.
4. Intermittent employees may work another Federal job (NAF or AF) as long as the total does not exceed 40 hours per week. The servicing personnel office must be notified when working more than one job.
5. The entire duration of the employment under the intermittent work schedule will NOT be credited as the Federal employment. Instead, the credit will be given only to the actual hours in pay or work status. Once the intermittent employees move in to different jobs of either full time or part time work schedule (or when they separate), the time served will be re-computed for the purpose of Service Computation Date (SCD) for Leave and Reduction in Force (RIF) purposes, Within-Grade Increase (WGI) due date, completion of probationary (or trial) periods when one is being served, or the date for conversion to career tenure for those who are serving under career-conditional appointment, as applicable.

6. Ineligible for Leave and Post Allowance.
7. Ineligible for Federal Employee Group Life Insurance (FEGLI), Health Benefits, or Retirement coverages except for those who are already employed and have such benefits.

For further information: <http://www.sss.gov>
9. All other forms and information required in the specific vacancy announcement, including any additional forms or information applicable to your specific situation as outlined below.

QUALIFICATION REQUIREMENTS: Evaluation will be based on OPM approved qualification standards for the specific occupational series. Selective Factors, if identified, are part of the minimum qualification requirements and will be used for determining basic eligibility in that they represent knowledge, skills, abilities, or special qualifications that are in addition to the minimum requirements in a qualification standard, but are determined to be essential to perform the duties and responsibilities of a particular position. Applicants who do not meet a selective factor are ineligible for further consideration.

TIME-IN-GRADE REQUIREMENTS: Applicants must meet OPM time-in-grade requirements for promotion to General Schedule positions in the competitive service. TIG restrictions apply to any candidate who within the previous 52 weeks held a General Schedule (GS) position under nontemporary appointment in the competitive service. An individual moving from an excepted appointment to another excepted appointment is NOT subject to TIG.

EDUCATION: When education is a basic requirement for the position, or when substituting education for experience, applicants MUST provide documentation or proof that he/she has met the education provisions with their application (Acceptable documentation/proof: official transcripts OR statement from institutions registrar, dean, or other appropriate official for ALL institutions attended). Foreign education must include evidence that it is comparable to education received at accredited educational institutions in the United States. All substitutions of education for experience will be made in accordance with OPM approved qualification standards. Only attendance and/or degrees from schools accredited by accrediting institutions recognized by the U.S. Department of Education are acceptable to meet positive education requirements or to substitute education for experience. For additional information, please go to the Office of Personnel Management (OPM) and the U.S. Department Education websites at <http://www.opm.gov/qualifications> and <http://www.ed.gov/admins/finaid/accred/index.html>

SUPERIOR ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT (S.A.A.): S.A.A. is based on (1) Class standing—must be in the upper third of the graduating class in the college, university, or major subdivision OR (2) Grade-point average—a) 3.0 or higher out of a possible 4.0 as recorded on their official transcript, or as computed based on 4 years of education, or computed based on courses completed during the final 2 years of the curriculum; or b) 3.5 or higher out of a possible 4.0 based on the average of the required courses completed in the major field or the required courses in the major field completed during the final 2 years of the curriculum OR (3) honor society membership.

EVALUATION METHOD: Information contained in the application to include KSAs, supplemental experience statement (if required) and performance appraisal will be used to determine basic eligibility and to identify the best qualified candidates. Applicants who meet the minimum qualification requirements will be rated on the job related KSA's to identify the best qualified candidates. For each work experience, if you describe more than one type of work (for example, carpentry and painting, or guard and supply), provide the approximate percentage of time you spent doing each.

EXTERNAL REFERRAL PROCEDURES: Referral of external candidates will be in accordance with Title 5 CFR 333 requiring that eligible applicants be referred in priority group order. Applicants in lower preference groups might not be referred for consideration even though rated as qualified, if a sufficient number of higher-preference group applicants are qualified and available for the position. This would preclude the selection of candidates from lower preference groups.

DEVELOPMENTAL OR TRAINEE POSITIONS: If selected for a developmental or trainee position, the selectee will undergo training and/or work experience and may be promoted to the intermediate and/or target levels without further competition when eligible and at the supervisor's discretion; however, promotions are not guaranteed.

MILITARY SPOUSE PREFERENCE (MSP)/FAMILY MEMBER PREFERENCE (FMP): Candidates claiming MSP/FMP must include a copy of sponsor's permanent change of station orders authorizing movement of spouse to the overseas command, or other appropriate documentation that supports that preference. Additional documentation may be required prior to granting preference. Please indicate in your application if you are claiming MSP. Applicants claiming MSP MUST address the knowledge, skills, and abilities (KSAs) listed in this announcement. Family members of locally hired DoD civilian employees are not eligible for family member preference. Military Spouses/Family Members may file applications for employment with overseas civilian personnel offices 30 days before their anticipated arrival within the command. However, spouses/family members may not receive preference until actually arriving at the overseas location.

VETERANS' PREFERENCE: A 5-point preference is granted to veterans who entered military service prior to October 14, 1976, or who have served in a military action for which they received a Campaign Badge or Expeditionary Medal. However, you may be entitled to 10-point veterans' preference if you are a disabled veteran; you have received a Purple Heart; you are the spouse or mother of a 100% disabled veteran; or you are the widow, widower, or mother of a deceased veteran. If you are claiming 10-point veteran preference, you will need to submit an SF 15, Application for 10-point Veterans' Preference, plus proof required by that form.

The Defense Authorization Act of November 18, 1997, extended veterans' preference to persons who served on active duty during the Gulf War from August 2, 1990, through January 2, 1992. The law grants preference to persons otherwise eligible and who served on active duty during this period, regardless of where the person served or for how long. The law also authorizes the Secretary of each military department to award the Armed Forces Expeditionary Medal for service in Bosnia during the veterans' preference. More information on veterans' preference is available in the VetGuide that may be found on the United States Office of Personnel Management web site: www.opm.gov
